PART-A
GENERAL ENGLISH (Marks: 25)

Read the passage carefully and mark the correct answer for the questions that follow:

In order to change and deal with emotions it is crucial to analyse which thoughts are useful, constructive and of benefit to us. This analysis is similar to one which we might use for external things, such as plants. Some plants, flowers and fruits are good for us, so we use them and grow them. Those plants which are poisonous or harmful to us, we learn to recognize and even sometimes destroy.

There is a similarity with the inner world. It is wise to take a close look into the world of your mind and to make the distinction between beneficial and harmful states of mind. Once you can recognize the value of good states of mind, you can increase or foster them.
