

1. With the approval ratings among his constituents and the stock market dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives to try stimulating the economy.

the stock market and the approval ratings among his constituents dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives to try to stimulate the stock market and with the approval ratings among his constituents dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives that will try to stimulate

the approval ratings among his constituents and the stock market dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives trying to stimulate

the stock market and the approval ratings among his constituents dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives to try and stimulate

the approval ratings among his constituents and the stock market dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives to try stimulating

2. While global temperatures have risen sharply over the last century, they have only recently eclipsed the Medieval period, during which scientists theorize that a series of volcanic eruptions sent the earth into a period of historic warmth.

they have only recently eclipsed those of the Medieval period, during which, scientists theorize, a

it has only recently eclipsed the Medieval period, during which, scientists theorize, a it has only recently eclipsed that of the Medieval period, during which scientists theorize a

they have only recently eclipsed those of the Medieval period, during which scientists theorize that a

they have only recently eclipsed the Medieval period, during which scientists theorize that a

3. The study involved 1000 patients whose cardiac disease was not well controlled by existing medications – drugs such as ACE inhibitors and beta-blockers – and had suffered persistent symptoms that had been lasting for at least a year.

and suffered from persistent symptoms that had lasted for at least a year but had suffered from persistent symptoms that lasted for a year or more

but were suffering from persistent symptoms that had been lasting for a year or more and who suffered persistent symptoms that had been lasting for at least a year and had suffered persistent symptoms that had been lasting for at least a year

4. A crippling disorder for many young women, anorexia nervosa is when issues of control and distorted body image result in a dangerously low weight within the context of age, developmental trajectory, and physical health.

A crippling disorder for many young women, anorexia nervosa develops

A crippling disorder for many young women, anorexia nervosa is

Anorexia nervosa is a crippling disorder for many young women;

A crippling disorder that affects many young women, anorexia nervosa is

Anorexia nervosa is a crippling disorder for many young women,

5. The USDA strictly prohibits vegetables that are grown using genetic engineering or ionizing radiation, and with sewage sludge, from being labeled “organic.”

genetic engineering, ionizing radiation, and sewage sludge genetic engineering or ionizing radiation, as well as the use of sewage sludge, genetic engineering, ionizing radiation, or sewage sludge genetic engineering or ionizing radiation, and with sewage sludge, genetic engineering or ionizing radiation, or the use of sewage sludge,

6. The endangered giraffes have sometimes been shot by farmers trying to save their crops when they are foraging for late-night snacks, or by poachers allowed access to help guard the fields.

who are trying to save their crops when the animals are foraging for late-night snacks or poachers who are trying to save their crops when they are foraging for late-night snacks, or by poachers trying to save their crops when the animals are foraging for late-night snacks or poachers who are trying to save their crops when they are foraging for late-night snacks, or by poachers who are trying to save their crops when the animals are foraging for late-night snacks, or by poachers

7. Trust in the medical field has been declining for decades, and the most tangible and immediate damage of that change may be public health and safety.

will be

may be to

has been

had been to

may be

8. Doctors sometimes insist that their patients' illnesses are the result of depression, but in ascribing these ailments to a psychological disorder, the patients are in effect told that these illnesses are all in their head.

in ascribing a psychological disorder as the cause for these ailments

in ascribing a psychological disorder to these ailments

if these ailments are ascribed to a psychological disorder

in ascribing these ailments to a psychological disorder

if these ailments are ascribed as the cause for a psychological disorder

9. With some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any European country.

Because of some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any European country.

With some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any other European country.

As some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any other European country.

Because it has some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than any European country does.

With some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any European country.

10. With only 7 percent of the globe's surface area, rainforests contain more than half of the world's plant and animal species, and absorb more carbon dioxide than any other land-based ecosystem on earth.

As

With

Although accounting for

Being

Despite having

11. A supermoon, which is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth, and which can make the moon appear much larger and brighter than the moon typically does.

supermoon, which is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth, causes the moon to appear

supermoon is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth and appears supermoon, which is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth, and which can make the moon appear

supermoon is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth, a position which causes itself to appear

supermoon is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth and can make the moon appear

2. Until 2010, a state tax regulation known as the “80-20 rule” required that condominium associations receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as ground-floor rent for restaurants.

required condominium associations to receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and to have no more than 20 percent from other sources, like requiring that condominium associations receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and have no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as required that condominium associations receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and have no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as

required that condominium associations receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as

required condominium associations to receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and have no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as

13. In an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies, recruiters indicated that the quality they prioritize most in an applicant is someone who takes initiative and seeks out new tasks without having to be directly managed at all times.

In an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies, recruiters indicated that they most heavily prioritize applicants who take initiative and seek

In an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies, recruiters indicating that they most heavily prioritize applicants who have the quality of taking initiative and who seek

Recruiters indicated in an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies that the quality they prioritize most in an applicant is someone who take initiative, seeking

In an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies, recruiters indicated that the quality they prioritize most in an applicant is someone who takes initiative and seeks

Recruiters indicated in an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies that they prioritize most heavily the quality in applicants who take initiative, seeking

14. With productivity slowing substantially in recent years, questions have re-emerged about whether computer technology can power economic growth like the steam engine and the printing press.

whether computer technology can power economic growth like the steam engine and the printing press whether technology can power economic growth as the steam engine and the printing press do if computer technology can power economic growth like the way the steam engine and the printing press did whether computer technology can power economic growth the way the steam engine and the printing press did

if computer technology can power economic growth as the steam engine and the internal combustion engine of the past do

15. The USDA strictly prohibits vegetables that are grown using genetic engineering or ionizing radiation, and with sewage sludge, from being labeled “organic.”

genetic engineering, ionizing radiation, or sewage sludge

genetic engineering or ionizing radiation, or the use of sewage sludge, genetic engineering or ionizing radiation, and with sewage sludge, genetic engineering or ionizing radiation, as well as the use of sewage sludge,

genetic engineering, ionizing radiation, and sewage sludge

16. Doctors sometimes insist that their patients' illnesses are the result of depression, but in ascribing these ailments to a psychological disorder, the patients are in effect told that these illnesses are all in their head.

in ascribing a psychological disorder as the cause for these ailments

if these ailments are ascribed to a psychological disorder

Your current choice:

in ascribing these ailments to a psychological disorder

in ascribing a psychological disorder to these ailments

if these ailments are ascribed as the cause for a psychological disorder

17. While global temperatures have risen sharply over the last century, they have only recently eclipsed the Medieval period, during which scientists theorize that a series of volcanic eruptions sent the earth into a period of historic warmth.

it has only recently eclipsed that of the Medieval period, during which scientists theorize a

they have only recently eclipsed those of the Medieval period, during which scientists theorize that a

it has only recently eclipsed the Medieval period, during which, scientists theorize, a

they have only recently eclipsed those of the Medieval period, during which, scientists theorize, a

they have only recently eclipsed the Medieval period, during which scientists theorize that a

18. A supermoon, which is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth, and which can make the moon appear much larger and brighter than the moon typically does.

supermoon, which is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth, causes the moon to appear

supermoon is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth, a position which causes itself to appear

supermoon is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth and appears

supermoon is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth and can make the moon appear

supermoon, which is the full or new moon that occurs when the moon is at or near its closest approach to the Earth, and which can make the moon appear

19. With productivity slowing substantially in recent years, questions have re-emerged about whether computer technology can power economic growth like the steam engine and the printing press.

if computer technology can power economic growth as the steam engine and the internal combustion engine of the past do

whether computer technology can power economic growth like the steam engine and the printing press

whether computer technology can power economic growth the way the steam engine and the printing press did

if computer technology can power economic growth like the way the steam engine and the printing press did whether technology can power economic growth as the steam engine and the printing press do

20. With the approval ratings among his constituents and the stock market dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives to try stimulating the economy.

the approval ratings among his constituents and the stock market dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives trying to stimulate

the stock market and the approval ratings among his constituents dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives to try to stimulate

the stock market and with the approval ratings among his constituents dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives that will try to stimulate

the approval ratings among his constituents and the stock market dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives to try stimulating

the stock market and the approval ratings among his constituents dropping rapidly, the president announced a series of spending initiatives to try and stimulate

21. With some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any European country.

Because of some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any European country.

Because it has some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than any European country does.

With some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any other European country.

With some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any European country.

As some of the busiest airports and ports in Europe, the United Kingdom has far more invasive species of certain types than does any other European country.

22. With only 7 percent of the globe's surface area, rainforests contain more than half of the world's plant and animal species, and absorb more carbon dioxide than any other land-based ecosystem on earth.

Although accounting for

Being

Despite having

With

As

23. Until 2010, a state tax regulation known as the "80-20 rule" required that condominium associations receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as ground-floor rent for restaurants.

required condominium associations to receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and have no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as

requiring that condominium associations receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and have no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as

required that condominium associations receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as

required that condominium associations receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and have no more than 20 percent from other sources, such as

required condominium associations to receive at least 80 percent of their gross income from their tenant-shareholders, and to have no more than 20 percent from other sources, like

24. In an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies, recruiters indicated that the quality they prioritize most in an applicant is someone who takes initiative and seeks out new tasks without having to be directly managed at all times.

Recruiters indicated in an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies that they prioritize most heavily the quality in applicants who take initiative, seeking

In an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies, recruiters indicated that the quality they prioritize most in an applicant is someone who takes initiative and seeks

In an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies, recruiters indicating that they most heavily prioritize applicants who have the quality of taking initiative and who seek

In an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies, recruiters indicated that they most heavily prioritize applicants who take initiative and seek

Recruiters indicated in an extensive survey of Fortune 500 companies that the quality they prioritize most in an applicant is someone who take initiative, seeking

25. A crippling disorder for many young women, anorexia nervosa is when issues of control and distorted body image result in a dangerously low weight within the context of age, developmental trajectory, and physical health.

Anorexia nervosa is a crippling disorder for many young women,

A crippling disorder that affects many young women, anorexia nervosa is

Anorexia nervosa is a crippling disorder for many young women;

A crippling disorder for many young women, anorexia nervosa develops

A crippling disorder for many young women, anorexia nervosa is

26. Trust in the medical field has been declining for decades, and the most tangible and immediate damage of that change may be public health and safety.

may be to

may be

has been

will be

had been to

27. The study involved 1000 patients whose cardiac disease was not well controlled by existing medications – drugs such as ACE inhibitors and beta-blockers – and had suffered persistent symptoms that had been lasting for at least a year.

and who suffered persistent symptoms that had been lasting for at least a year

and had suffered persistent symptoms that had been lasting for at least a year

but were suffering from persistent symptoms that had been lasting for a year or more

but had suffered from persistent symptoms that lasted for a year or more

and suffered from persistent symptoms that had lasted for at least a year

28. The endangered giraffes have sometimes been shot by farmers trying to save their crops when they are foraging for late-night snacks, or by poachers allowed access to help guard the fields.

trying to save their crops when they are foraging for late-night snacks, or by poachers

who are trying to save their crops when they are foraging for late-night snacks, or by poachers who are trying to save their crops when the animals are foraging for late-night snacks, or by poachers

trying to save their crops when the animals are foraging for late-night snacks or poachers

who are trying to save their crops when the animals are foraging for late-night snacks or poachers who are

Replace the underlined portion with the answer choice that results in a sentence that is clear, precise, and meets the requirements of standard written English.

29. The key issue in the case concerned whether or not the defendant ever having possession of the murder weapon.

ever having possession of the murder weapon.

ever having possession with the murder weapon.

even having possession of the murder weapon.

ever had possession of the murder weapon.

ever having possession to the murder weapon.

Replace the underlined portion with the answer choice that results in a sentence that is clear, precise, and meets the requirements of standard written English.

30. Finding new evidence in unpublished journals, the historian produced research that greatly reshaped the way the academy thinking about the Civil War.

the way the academy will be thinking about the Civil War.

the way the academy thinks about the Civil War.

the way the academy thinking about the Civil War.

the way the academy was thinking about the Civil War.

the way the academy can think about the Civil War.

Replace the underlined portion with the answer choice that results in a sentence that is clear, precise, and meets the requirements of standard written English.

31. Perhaps the shift in the profit sectors will reverse itself in the next few months, makes the entire conversation unnecessary in the long run.

has made the entire conversation unnecessary in the long run.

making the entire conversation unnecessary in the long run.

makes the entire conversation unnecessary in the long run.

makes an entire conversation unnecessary in the long run.

to make the entire conversation unnecessary in the long run.