

TOEFL Independent Writing Practice Test 21

Do you agree or disagree with the following statement? In the Industrial Age, many developed countries aimed for more significant economic growth every generation. While they are making considerable progress, the setbacks cannot be eliminated. Economic development shares a close relationship with environmental protection, and in the long run, the latter reflects more importance.

Keywords: economic

Type: Agree & Disagree

Some people say that we should always follow our dreams, even if the dreams are very ambitious. Others think that we should focus on achieving realistic goals. Which view do you agree with?

Keywords: opinion

Type: Agree & Disagree

Do you agree or disagree with the following statement? People think people are spending too much money on their pets these days and that money could be put to better use.

Keywords: animal

Type: Agree & Disagree

Are domestic movies and TV shows more interesting or foreign movies and TV shows?

Keywords: movie

Type: If / Imaginary

Teachers of young children at a primary school are considering making one significant change to better support their student's educational and social development (aged 6-10). Encourage students to ask questions in class more frequently than they do now; have students work together in pairs or small groups more regularly than they do now; Meet with each student's parents more frequently than they do now. Which one of the following changes do you think is the most important for the teachers to make and why?

Keywords: student

Type: Preference

