

Question 1

The Narmer Palette is one of a few surviving artifacts from the Nile Valley that are so iconic and so rich in information that they can act as _____ of certain aspects of ancient Egyptian culture as a whole.

[Note: Select 2 answer choices]

A | microcosms

B | antitheses

C | epitomes

D | antipodes

E | zeniths

F | tyros

Question 2

The High Court rejected the appeal and MPs were tasked with getting the details of their expenses ready for publication but with certain _____.

[Note: Select 2 answer choices]

A | compurgation

B | ostentation

C | redaction

D | recension

E | affectation

F | repugnance

Question 3

Across Europe, an estimated 50 millions of the war's survivors had been uprooted by the war, some 16 millions of them _____ termed "displaced persons" by the victorious Allies.

[Note: Select 2 answer choices]

A | indecorously

B | snootily

C | euphemistically

D | tenebrously

E | innocuously

F | unabashedly

Question 4

Yet those plans, based as they were on the age-old formula of security-through-expansion, needed to be balanced against a _____ desire to maintain the framework of cooperation with the United States and Great Britain.

[Note: Select 2 answer choices]

A | countervailing

B | counterpoised

C | grousing

D | sybaritic

E | cloistered

F | truculent

Question 5

He has a reputation for being wooden and _____, but I think he comes across as both personable and thoughtful in his ads.

[Note: Select 2 answer choices]

A | portentous

B | standoffish

C | blithe

D | uncongenial

E | convivial

F | candid