

Money and Society

Speaking Part 1

- 1 What is your biggest goal in life?
- 2 Have you set any short-term goals for yourself?
- 3 How do you plan to achieve your biggest goal?
- 4 What are your financial goals?
- 5 Do you think you are successful?

Speaking Part 2

Describe something that you would like to succeed in doing in the near future.

You should say:

- What it is?
- How difficult you think it will be?
- What you should do to prepare for this?
- And explain why you want to succeed in doing this.

Speaking Part 3

- 1 How would you define success?
- 2 Do you think most people want to succeed in life?
- 3 When do most people want to be successful ?
- 4 What kind of success is most important to Chinese people?
- 5 Do you think that successful people are always happier than unsuccessful people?
- 6 How should parents reward their children for success, for example, for doing very well in exams at school ?
- 7 How do teachers in China reward students for doing well?
- 8 How do bosses in China reward employees for a job well done?
- 9 Which do you think is a better attitude for children to have: a strong spirit of competition or a strong spirit of cooperation with others?
- 10 Do you think that too much competition could damage the spirit of cooperation in society?