

US History SAT Practice Test 19

1. In his 2001 "War on Terror" speech to Congress, George W. Bush demanded the Taliban do all of the following EXCEPT

- A. immediately close all terrorist camps.
- B. release all foreign prisoners.
- C. transfer all terrorists on Afghani soil to the United States.
- D. hand over Saddam Hussein.
- E. give U.S. troops access to terror camps to ensure compliance.

2. Mortgage-backed securities are

- A. bundles of subprime mortgages traded like stocks.
- B. low-interest loans offered to people with troubled credit histories.
- C. another name for adjustable-rate mortgages.
- D. recession-proof investments.
- E. stable assets.

3. George W. Bush's immigration reform policy can best be described as

- A. amnesty for all people who immigrated to the U.S. illegally.
- B. unrealistic, in that it refused to acknowledge illegal immigrants who were already working in the United States.
- C. a policy to deport immediately all illegal immigrants.
- D. a pathway to citizenship for illegal immigrants already working in the United States coupled with measures to restrict more from entering.
- E. a way to safeguard American jobs for U.S. citizens.

4. The Bush Doctrine refers to

- A. a policy of unilateral, preemptive strikes against suspected terrorist threats against the United States and its allies.
- B. a program of tax cuts to spark economic activity.
- C. a policy of creating an international coalition of forces to crush terrorist threats.
- D. rebuilding the Gulf Coast after Hurricane Katrina.
- E. a systematic plan to encourage environmental initiatives to prevent global warming.

Question	Correct Answer
1	D
2	A
3	D
4	A