  - Further instructions regarding the Olympiad will be conveyed to you a few days before the Olympiad over e-mail, so we request you to check your e-mail on a regular basis to receive the updates.
- 1.4 The Olympiad shall be conducted over SpeedExam.net and the login credentials shall be shared over e-mail to the candidates a few days before the examination.

2. Structure of NEO

- 2.1 The examination consists of two rounds:
  - Preliminary Round (Classes XI and XII: 1st November, 2020)
  - Final Round (8th November, 2020)Timings of Preliminary Round: Class XI: 3-4 PM and Class XII: 5-6 PM
- 2.2 Both the rounds will be conducted online. All candidates are requested to make timely arrangements for a laptop/desktop suitable for answering the examination. We strongly discourage the use of a smartphone to take the examination.
- 2.3 Participants are expected to have an adequately strong internet connection. The organisation will not be responsible for any connectivity issues faced by the student during the examination.
- 2.4 The examination is an assessment of students' analytical and problem-solving skills. The question set will include case studies based on contemporary issues, multiple choice questions, among others. There is no fixed syllabus for the examination. The preliminary round will be divided into 4 sections covering logical reasoning, economic concepts, data interpretation and case studies.
- 2.5 No prior preparation is required for the Olympiad. However, a Sample Question Booklet will be shared after the student completes the registration procedure for him to get a brief idea of what the Olympiad entails of.
- 2.6 Once the examination starts, the candidate can only leave the page at the termination of the stipulated time. Any attempts to open a different window/tab will lead to the cancellation of the respective candidate's responses.
