National Law University Delhi
AI Law and Policy Diploma Course

The AI Law and Policy Diploma Course is an exciting opportunity to learn the legal, public policy, socio-political and economic contours of AI systems and their implications for our society and its governance. Curated and prepared by expert academics and researchers at CCG and NLU Delhi, the course will allow students the opportunity to interact and learn from renowned policy practitioners and experienced professionals in the domain of technology law and policy.

WHAT YOU LEARN

- AI and the law
- Ethics and AI
- International processes and governance of AI
- AI governance in India
- Data Protection and AI
- AI discrimination and bias
- Emerging uses of AI

WHO CAN APPLY

Applications are now open for -

- Lawyers
- Professionals (corporate, industry, government, civil society, media/journalists)
- Policy Professionals
- Academicians
- Research Scholars
- Graduates from any Discipline
- 10+2 degree from any recognized board of education

ELIGIBILITY

Should have a minimum of 55% marks in their 10+2

COURSE DETAILS

Duration: October 2022 to May 2023 (8 months)

Payment details : Rs. 90,000/- (all inclusive and non-refundable)

APPLICATION DETAILS

Last date to apply : 3rd October 2022 (11:59 PM IST)
Access further information about the course at https://bit.ly/AICourseDetails
To complete the registration process visit https://bit.ly/AIdiplomacourse

Contact us: ccgcourse@nludelhi.ac.in
For further information visit: https://ccgdelhi.org/ | https://nludelhi.ac.in/home.aspx