Set 1- 2/1/1

SECTION A

Ques 1. Read the text given below

Ques(1) Held every year on 21 May, UNESCO lends the celebration of World Day for Cultural Diversity for Dialogue and Development highlighting not only the richness of the world's cultures, but also the essential role of intercultural dialogue for achieving peace and sustainable development

Ques (2) A recent international emergency has proved the intrinsic value of the cultural and Creative sector at generating social cohesion, educational resources and personal well-being in times of crisis. It has also underscored the sector's potential to generate economic growth, something which is too often underestimated.

Ques (3) With the adoption in September 2015 of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development by the United Nations, and the Solution on Culture and Sustainable Development adopted by the UN General Assembly in December 2015, the message of the World Day for Cultural Diversity for Dialogue and Development is more important than ever. The 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) can best be achieved by drawing upon the creative potential of the world's diverse cultures and engaging in continuous dialogue to ensure that all members of society benefit from sustainable development.

Ques (4) Bridging the gap between cultures is urgent and necessary for peace, stability and development. Cultural diversity is a driving force of development, not only with respect to economic growth, but also as a means of leading a mature intellectual, emotional, moral and spiritual life.

This is captured in the culture conventions, which provide a solid basis for the promotion of cultural diversity. Cultural diversity is thus an asset that is indispensable for poverty reduction and the achievement of sustainable development

Ques (5) At the same time, acceptance and recognition of cultural diversity in particular through innovative use of media and Information and Communications Technologies (ICTs) are conducive to dialogue among civilizations and cultures, respect and mutual understanding

Ques (6) In 2001, UNESCO adopted the Universal Declaration on Cultural Diversity. Next, in December 2002, the UN General Assembly, in its reSolution: 57/240, declared May 21 to be the World Day for Cultural Diversity for Dialogue and Development, and in 2018, the Second Committee of the UN General unanimously adopted the reSolution: on Culture and Sustainable Development, affirming culture's contribution to the three dimensions of sustainable development, acknowledging further the natural and cultural diversity of the world, and recognizing that cultures and civilizations can contribute to, and are crucial to establish, sustainable development.

Ques (7) The day provides us with an opportunity to deepen our understanding of the values of cultural diversity and to achieve the goals of the UNESCO Convention on the Protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions adopted on 20 October, 2005.

[Your Address],

[City, State, Zip Code],
[Date]

The Commissioner of Traffic Police,
[Traffic Police Headquarters],
[City, State, Zip Code]

Subject: Urgent Need for Stricter Action Against Reckless Driving

Dear Commissioner,

I am writing to you with deep concern regarding the alarming rise in fatal accidents caused by reckless driving and road rage in our city. It is distressing to see daily reports in the newspaper highlighting these tragic incidents, which not only result in loss of lives but also leave families shattered.

I strongly urge you to take stricter action against the offenders to deter such irresponsible behavior on the roads. Enforcing stringent penalties and implementing stricter regulations for traffic violations can serve as effective deterrents. Additionally, increasing patrolling and surveillance in accident-prone areas can help in monitoring and controlling reckless driving.

Furthermore, I recommend utilizing social media platforms to launch awareness campaigns about the implications of irresponsible driving. Engaging with the community through social media can help in spreading awareness about road safety practices and promoting responsible driving habits among the public.

It is crucial to prioritize the safety of citizens and ensure strict enforcement of traffic laws to prevent further loss of lives on our roads. I hope you will consider these suggestions and take necessary actions to address this pressing issue.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Subject: Encouraging School Children's Participation in Community Service Events

Dear Editor,

I am writing to you on behalf of the students of Adarsh Vidyalaya to highlight the significant role of school children in participating in community service events. As the school captain, I am proud to lead a group of one hundred students who will be participating in the half marathon sponsored by 'Savera' to raise funds for the 'Koshish' orphanage in our city.

Participation in such events not only fosters physical fitness but also instills a sense of responsibility and compassion among students. It provides them with a platform to contribute positively to society while developing essential life skills such as teamwork, perseverance, and empathy.

Engaging in voluntary community service activities like the half marathon enables students to connect with their community, understand societal issues, and empathize with those in need. It nurtures a sense of social responsibility and instills values of altruism and compassion from a young age.

Furthermore, participation in such events offers students a unique opportunity to make a tangible difference in the lives of others while gaining valuable experiences that contribute to their holistic development.

I urge other schools and educational institutions to encourage their students to actively participate in community service events as part of their extracurricular activities. Together, we can nurture a generation of socially conscious and compassionate individuals who actively contribute to the betterment of society.

Thank you for considering the importance of highlighting the participation of school children in community service events in your esteemed publication.

Yours sincerely,

Roshini/Roshan

SECTION-C
LITERATURE TEXTBOOK

Ques 6.

Read the following extracts and answer the questions for ANY ONE of the given two

(A) On the day of the inauguration, I was overwhelmed with a sense of history. In the first decade of the 20th century a few years after the bitter Anglo-Boer war and before my own birth, the white skinned people of South Africa patched up their differences and created a system of racial domination against the dark-skinned people of their own land. The structure they created formed the basis of one of the harshest, most inhumane societies the world has ever known. Now, in the last decade of the twentieth century, and my own eighth decade as a man, that system has been overturned forever and replaced by one that recognised the rights and freedoms of all peoples, regardless of the color of their skin.

Ques (i) Explain the feelings of the narrator when he said; "I was overwhelmed with a sense of history."

Solution: The narrator expresses a profound emotional experience upon witnessing the inauguration, indicating that he felt deeply affected by the historical significance of the event. The phrase "overwhelmed with a sense of history" suggests that he was filled with strong emotions and a deep awareness of the historical context and implications of the moment.

Ques (ii) The system of racial domination has been replaced by a system that:

- (A) confirms the education of the Blacks.
- (B) recognises the rights and freedoms of all people.
- (C) recollects the bitter experiences.

(D) focuses on personality development.

Solution:

(B) recognises the rights and freedoms of all people

Ques (iii) Comment on the kind of society apartheid had created?

Solution: Apartheid created a society characterized by extreme racial segregation, oppression, and discrimination. It institutionalized racism, dividing people based on the color of their skin and depriving non-white individuals of basic human rights and freedoms. This system fostered inequality, injustice, and widespread suffering among the oppressed communities, making it one of the harshest and most inhumane societies in history.

Ques (iv) Which phrase would correctly substitute 'patched up' in the given sentence from the extract: "...the white skinned people of South Africa patched up their differences..."

Solution: "Resolved"

OR

6.

(B) I started right away at the Montessori Nursery School. I stayed there until I was six, at which time I started in the first form. In the sixth form, my teacher was Mrs. Kuperus, the headmistress. At the end of the year we were both in tears as we said a heartbreaking farewell. In the summer of 1941, Grandma fell ill and had to have an operation, so my birthday passed with little celebration.

Ques (i) "In the summer of 1941, Grandma fell ill and had to have an operation, so my birthday passed with little celebration." State any one inference about Anne from the above context.

Solution: One possible inference about Anne from this context is that she experienced disappointment or sadness during her birthday due to her grandmother's illness and the lack of celebration, indicating her empathy and concern for her family members.

Ques (ii) The first education of Anne started at

- (A) some Kindergarten School
- (B) a Nursery School
- (C) Montessori Nursery School
- (D) Elementary School

Solution: (C) Montessori Nursery School

Ques (iii) Who was Mrs. Kuperus? What kind of relationship did Anne share with her?

Solution: Mrs. Kuperus was Anne's teacher and the headmistress during her time in the sixth form. Anne shared a close and emotional relationship with Mrs. Kuperus, as evidenced by their tearful farewell at the end of the year. This suggests that Anne respected and admired Mrs. Kuperus and formed a strong bond with her.

Ques (iv) Substitute the word 'heartbreaking' with a word similar in meaning in the following sentence:

"At the end of the year we were both in tears as we said a heartbreaking farewell."

Solution: "Heartrending"

Ques 7. Read the following extracts and answer the questions for ANY ONE of the given two:

(A) He stalks in his vivid stripes
The few steps of his cage,
On pads of velvet quiet,
In his quiet rage.

He should be lurking in the shadows,
Sliding through long grass
Near the water pole
Where plump deer pass.

He should be snarling around houses
At the jungle's edge,
Baring his white fangs,
his claws,
Terrorizing the village!

Ques (i) State any one point of contrast between the tiger in the zoo and in its natural habitat.

Solution: In its natural habitat, the tiger would roam freely in the jungle, whereas in the zoo, it is confined to a cage, highlighting the contrast between its freedom and captivity.

Ques (ii) When the speaker suggests that the tiger should be "Snarling around houses at the jungle's edge"? What does he insinuate about the tiger's natural behavior and habitat?

Solution: The speaker insinuates that the tiger's natural behavior involves roaming freely in its jungle habitat, near human settlements, where it can assert its dominance and instill fear, unlike the confined and restricted environment of the zoo.

Ques (iii) The poet's skillful use of imagery effectively depicts the confinement and frustration of the tiger. Elaborate in about 40 words.

Solution: The poet vividly portrays the tiger's captivity and frustration by contrasting its natural habitat with the confines of the cage. Through imagery like "vivid stripes" and "quiet rage," the poem evokes the sense of confinement and captivity experienced by the tiger.

Ques (iv) Which phrase would correctly substitute 'quiet rage' in the given sentence from the extract?

The few steps of his cage on pads of velvet quiet in his 'quiet rage.'

Solution: "Suppressed fury"

7.

OR

Ques (B) No use to say 'O there are other balls. An ultimate shaking grief fixes the boy As he stands rigid, trembling, staring down All his young days into the harbor where his ball went.

I would not intrude on him, A dime, another ball, is worthless. Now He senses first responsibility In a world of possessions. People will take Balls, balls will be lost always, little boy And no one buys a ball back. Money is external. He is learning..

Ques (i) Which of the following best describes the speaker's attitude towards the boy's reaction to losing his ball?

- (A) indifferent as the ball is inexpensive
- (B) sympathetic, understanding the depth of the boy's loss
- (C) mocking, finding the boy's reaction exaggerated and unnecessary.
- (D) panicked, sharing the boy's distress over the lost ball.

Solution: (B) sympathetic, understanding the depth of the boy's loss

Ques (ii) Comment on the use of metaphor in the above extract.

Solution: The metaphor of the lost ball symbolizes the loss of innocence and the transition into adulthood. It represents the boy's first encounter with responsibility and the harsh realities of life, as he learns that possessions can be lost and cannot always be replaced.

Ques (iii) Explain the phrase 'all his young days into the harbor' with reference to the extract.

Solution: The phrase 'all his young days into the harbor' suggests that the boy's entire childhood is encapsulated in the moment of losing his ball. It symbolizes the profound impact of this loss on his innocence and his transition into the complexities of adulthood.

Ques (iv) Briefly state in about 40 words the boy's journey from 'shaking grief to 'he is learning' in the above extract.

Solution: The boy initially experiences intense grief and sorrow over losing his ball, but as the speaker observes his reaction, he recognizes the boy's realization of responsibility and the inevitability of loss, marking his transition into maturity.

Ques 8. Answer ANY FOUR of the following five questions in 40-50 words each:

Ques (i) What mood of the poet is reflected in the poem 'Dust of Snow' initially? What images are used by the poet to bring about the effect? Comment.

Solution: Initially, the poet's mood in "Dust of Snow" is somber and melancholic. Images of a crow, hemlock tree, and dust of snow evoke a sense of gloom. However, the transformative effect of the snow on the poet's mood brings about a shift towards a more positive outlook.

Ques (ii) How far would you agree that one's positivity can bring in a spark of brightness even in adverse circumstances?

Solution: Positivity has the power to illuminate even the darkest of circumstances. By maintaining a positive attitude, individuals can find hope, resilience, and solutions to overcome challenges. It not only improves one's outlook but also inspires others, creating a ripple effect of brightness.

Ques (iii) What makes Custard, the dragon look fearsome? Explain

Solution: Custard, the dragon, looks fearsome due to his large size, sharp claws, and fiery breath. His intimidating appearance, coupled with his reputation for causing mischief and chaos, instills fear in the townspeople. However, beneath his fearsome exterior lies a timid and gentle nature.

Ques (vi) Explain why the speaker mentions God in the poem "For Anne Gregory".

Solution: The speaker mentions God in "For Anne Gregory" to emphasize the transcendental beauty and perfection he seeks in Anne's appearance. By invoking God's name, the speaker highlights Anne's ethereal qualities, portraying her as a divine being worthy of admiration and reverence.

Ques (v) What message might the Buddha's story hold for those who are in positions of power and privilege?

Solution: The Buddha's story teaches those in positions of power and privilege the importance of humility, compassion, and selflessness. It emphasizes the transient nature of worldly wealth and status, urging individuals to seek inner peace and enlightenment rather than clinging to material possessions.

9. Answer ANY TWO of the following three questions in 40-50 words each:

Ques (i) Scientists contribute to making the world a better place. Griffin is an antithesis to this statement. Justify. (Footprints Without Feet)

Solution: Griffin, from "Footprints Without Feet," misuses his scientific knowledge for personal gain and wreaks havoc rather than contributing positively to society. He becomes invisible to satisfy his selfish desires, demonstrating the misuse of scientific advancements.

Ques (ii) Why did Bholi's teacher feel like an artist admiring her masterpiece? (Bholi)

Solution: Bholi's teacher felt like an artist admiring her masterpiece because she saw the transformation in Bholi's confidence and personality. Bholi, who was once timid and insecure, became empowered and self-assured, akin to an artist witnessing the blossoming of their creation.

Ques (iii) What is the twist at the end of the story "The Necklace"? (The Necklace)

Solution: At the end of "The Necklace," it is revealed that the necklace Mathilde borrowed and lost was actually a cheap imitation, not a valuable piece of jewelry. The twist exposes the irony of Mathilde's obsession with material wealth and the consequences of her vanity.

10. Answer ANY ONE of the following two questions in 100-120 words:

Ques (i) In the chapter 'A Baker from Goa' the narrator talks about his childhood in Goa and his fond memories. In about 120 words write a presentation draft comparing the childhood of the narrator in 'A Baker from Goa' to that of Nelson Mandela.

You may begin this way:

Childhood memories remind us of the days gone by.....

Reference: A Baker from Goa and Nelson Mandela: Long Walk

(ii) Amanda from the poem 'Amanda' is a teenager like Anne Frank and lives in her fantasy world whereas Anne is a chatterbox. What conversation will Anne Frank have with Amanda about different perspectives of life? Write your answer in about 120 words.

Solution: Answer for Question (i):

Childhood memories remind us of the days gone by, shaping who we become as adults. In "A Baker from Goa," the narrator reminisces about his carefree childhood spent in the idyllic settings of Goa. Similarly, Nelson Mandela's childhood, as depicted in "Long Walk to Freedom," contrasts sharply with the narrator's. While the narrator enjoyed a peaceful upbringing, Mandela faced racial discrimination and oppression in apartheid-era South Africa. Despite their differing experiences, both narratives underscore the significance of childhood in shaping one's resilience and values. The narrator's nostalgic recollections highlight the innocence and simplicity of his youth, whereas Mandela's story exemplifies the struggle for justice and equality from a young age. These narratives remind us of the diverse paths individuals traverse on their journey to adulthood.

Answer for Question (ii):

In a conversation between Anne Frank and Amanda, Anne, the chatterbox, would likely share her experiences of living in hiding during the Holocaust. She would emphasize the importance of facing reality and finding strength in adversity. On the other hand, Amanda, living in her fantasy world, might express her desire to escape from harsh realities. Anne would encourage Amanda to find courage in confronting life's challenges, while Amanda might enlighten Anne about the power of imagination as a coping mechanism. Their conversation would highlight the contrast between facing reality and seeking solace in fantasy, illustrating the different perspectives people adopt to navigate life's complexities.

11. Answer ANY ONE of the following two questions in 100-120 words:

Ques (i) How did the lady in red manage to outsmart and out maneuver the other thief, Horace Danby, by robbing the safe without leaving a single fingerprint? (A Question of Trust)

Solution: In "A Question of Trust," the lady in red outsmarted and outmaneuvered Horace Danby by using gloves to handle the safe's knobs and dials. This prevented her from leaving any fingerprints on the safe, ensuring that there was no evidence of her involvement in the burglary. Additionally, she carefully planned the heist, meticulously timing her actions to avoid detection. Her attention to detail and careful execution of the burglary allowed her to evade suspicion and successfully steal the valuable jewels without leaving a trace behind.

Ques (ii) Hari Singh says "He knew it but neither his lips nor his eyes showed anything."

Anil successfully addressed the situation by not addressing it at all. Elaborate based on your reading of The Thief's Story

Solution: In "The Thief's Story," Anil's response to Hari Singh's statement reflects his strategic handling of the situation. Despite knowing that Hari Singh had stolen the wallet, Anil chooses not to confront him directly. Instead, Anil maintains a composed demeanor, neither acknowledging nor denying his knowledge of the theft. By opting for silence, Anil avoids escalating the situation and maintains a sense of ambiguity. This tactic prevents Hari Singh from feeling threatened or defensive, allowing their interaction to proceed smoothly. Anil's subtle approach demonstrates his astuteness and ability to navigate delicate situations with finesse, preserving their relationship while subtly asserting his understanding of the truth.
