Bienvenue à Montréal!

Montreal consistently ranks as one of the world's best student cities. Safe, clean and cosmopolitan, it offers a high quality of living at a low cost. In an affordable city with a vibrant atmosphere, Montrealers thrive on great food and culture, getting around by using its world-class cycling and public transportation infrastructure.

STUDY

at a next-generation
business school

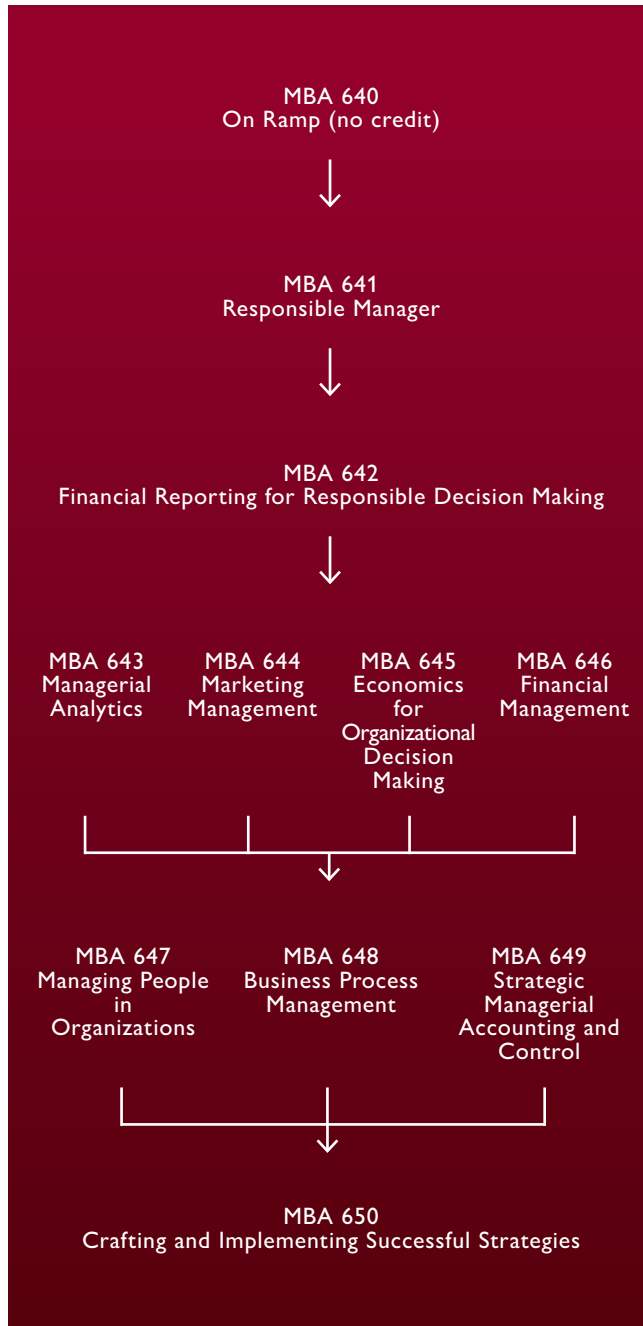

Located in the vibrant heart of downtown Montreal, Concordia University's John Molson School of Business is one of Canada's leading business schools.

Practical. Flexible. Experiential

The John Molson MBA is a practical program in every possible way. We look at management practices from a holistic and interdisciplinary perspective. Our flexible program allows you to create a schedule that fits your life while you acquire the comprehensive skills employers want through our case-based and experiential learning approach.

GET an integrated take on business

Designed as a two-year, 45-credit program, the John Molson MBA may be completed in as little as 16 months by taking summer classes. It covers a wide array of business topics to strengthen your strategic decision-making and critical thinking abilities.

On-ramp

Comprised of several quantitative modules, this online course will give you invaluable tools to prepare for the rest of the MBA program.

Core (30 credits)

Our case-format core begins with an overview of ethics, sustainability, and the role of organizations in society. You will then develop the practical expertise needed to manage specific business areas and finally apply it to cross-functional business problems.

Join a diverse network

Expand your network and learn from students who come from all over the world, bringing together a diverse range of backgrounds. Our small class size allows for close-knit interactions with your peers.

Class profile	3.3 average GPA
	5.5 years average work experience
	640 average GMAT
	32 countries represented
	49.2% International students
	40.2% female students
	80 students (Fall term)
	40 students (Winter term)

DEVELOP

key business skills through experiential learning

CEO shadowing Unique to JMSB is the opportunity to learn to lead by shadowing a top executive. This special feature of the Co-op paid internship program allows MBA students to work alongside the CEO of a small or medium-sized enterprise for up to 15 weeks.

Seize the opportunity to gain practical skills while earning credits toward your degree. The hands-on experience, practical knowledge and network developed through these options add tremendous value to your profile. Personalize your experience by tailoring the program according to your interests, motivation and career goals.

KEEP LEARNING

beyond the classroom

Continue developing your skills and leadership style by getting involved outside of the classroom. Every year, our students participate in a wide array of case competitions, community initiatives and networking activities, taking their education and careers to the next level by applying what they have learned in a practical way. Getting involved in extra-curricular activities is an excellent way to set yourself apart while making connections that will last a lifetime.

Experiential learning was the highlight of my MBA. Case competitions exposed the intricacies of a wide range of industries and inspired me to pursue a career in sustainable investing. Many opportunities and important insights arose out of my involvement and I feel privileged to be a part of the JMSB community.

Winnie Hu (MBA'19)

As part of the John Molson International Case Competition, I gained access to incredible mentorship from a board of directors composed of C-Level executives. Their advice and outlook on the challenges we faced as a team had a huge impact on my professional development. It was also through ICC that I built my strongest and most lasting friendships in the MBA.

Evan Baker (MBA'20)

at the world's largest case competition

Get involved as an organizer or compete against the world's very best teams. Open to top business schools worldwide, the John Molson MBA International Case Competition is recognized as the largest case competition of its kind. Our annual, not-for-profit event welcomes 36 teams from universities across the globe for a week-long competition at the start of January and is organized by a team of MBA students.
