INTRODUCTION

The Government of India in the Ministry of Health set up a committee known as the "HEALTH SURVEY AND PLANNING COMMITTEE" on the 12th June, 1959 to undertake the review of the development that had taken place since the publication of the report of HEALTH SURVEY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE (BHORE COMMITTEE) in 1946 with a view to formulate further health programmes for the country in the third and subsequent five year plan periods. This committee recommended the setting up of six Postgraduate Medical Institutions in the country one each at Calcutta, Mumbai, Madras, Hyderabad, Lucknow and Chandigarh to meet the increasing demand of teachers for the rapidly expanding medical college's specialist services for hospitals, and need of the armed forces.

The Postgraduate Institute of Medical Education & Research was conceived and planned in 1960 to create in Chandigarh an "ISLAND OF EXCELLENCE" providing physical and intellectual milieu for young scientists working in multiple disciplines of medicine, to advance the frontiers of knowledge to render humane service to sick and suffering and to train medical and paramedical manpower. The Institute was established in 1962 under the erstwhile state of Punjab. It was declared as an Institute of National Importance by an Act of Parliament (Sr. No. 51 of 1966) w.e.f. 1st April, 1967.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE INSTITUTE

The following are the objectives of the Institute:

- a) To develop patterns of teaching in undergraduate and postgraduate education in all its branches, so as to demonstrate a high standard of medical education.
- b) To bring together, as far as possible, in one place, educational facilities of the highest order for the training of personnel in all important branches of health activity; and
- c) To attain self sufficiency in postgraduate medical education to meet the country's need for specialists and medical teachers.

ADMISSION TO THE COURSES

- a) Admission to PhD courses offered at the Institute is done twice a year. The sessions commence from first January and first July each year.
- b) The admission to the Ph.D courses imparted at the Institute is made on all India Merit basis by holding an entrance examination by the Institute, after issuing a countrywide admission notice. The admission notice is published in leading English & Hindi newspapers of India usually during September/October and March/April for January and July Sessions respectively.
